PRESS RELEASE

GREENWICH AEROGROUP FORMS FINANCIAL SERVICES DIVISION

Wichita, Kan., Nov., 14, 2011 – In today's economy financial institutions vary widely in their financing criteria and flexibility in regards to loans and leases for aircraft. To assist operators in acquiring turboprop powered aircraft or rotorcraft, Greenwich AeroGroup has established Greenwich AeroGroup Financial Services.

Greenwich AeroGroup Financial Services is structured to provide finance and leasing options for a variety of general aviation aircraft and rotorcraft.

"Today, many private business, commercial, government and military aircraft operators find it a better option to lease versus buy," said Greenwich AeroGroup President and Chief Executive Officer Jim Ziegler. "We provide many different options from Capital Leases to Municipal Leases with competitive market rates, and we can offer customized package options such as bundling a purchase with maintenance services."

Ziegler added that Greenwich AeroGroup has named Scott M. Grady as President of the Financial Services segment.
